Kylee Marie Heyne and Andrew Michael Klausing were united in marriage on May 5, 2012, at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church, the Rev. Melvin Verhoff officiating.

The bride's parents are Dave and Linda Vogel of St. Marys and Gary Heyne of Celina. The groom's parents are Mike and Karen Klausing of Delphos.

Nuptial music was provided by pianist Deb Goettemoeller, vocalist Erica Gelhaus and trumpeter David Stearns.

Maid of honor was Rachel Platfoot of Coldwater, future sister-in-law.

Bridesmaids were Kristin Klausing of Delphos, sister of the groom; Courtney Klausing of Spencerville, sister-in-law of the couple; Jenny McElroy of Fort Jennings, friend of the couple; Andrea Dietz of Miamisburg, friend of the couple; Lindsay Schwieterman of St. Henry, friend of the couple; Erin Kleinhenz of Columbus, friend of the couple; Amanda Alig of Coldwater, friend of the couple.

Flower girl was Grace Heyne, niece of the bride. Junior bridesmaid was Macy Vogel, sister of the bride. Ring bearer was Owen McElroy, friend of the couple.

Best man was Aaron Klausing of Spencerville, brother of the groom.

Groomsmen were Ben Heyne of Coldwater, brother of the bride; Cody Vogel of St. Mary's, brother of the bride; and Josh McElroy of Fort Jennings, Scott Osburn, Adam Rostorfer and Trevor Bonifas of Dublin and Kyle Wright of Bellefontaine, friends of the couple.

Grandparents of the bride are Ivo and Betty Homan of St. Henry, Nancy and Fritz Vogel of St. Marys, Marilyn Heyne of Coldwater and Ralph Heyne of Celina.

Grandparents of the groom are Virginia Gunter of Delphos and the late William Gunter Sr. and Joann Klausing of Delphos and the late Don Klausing.

A reception was held at the Grand Plaza in Wapakoneta following the ceremony. After a wedding trip to Saint Lucia, West Indies, the couple resides in Delphos.

The bride is a graduate of Coldwater High School and received her bachelor's degree from Wright State University. She is employed by Joint Township District Memorial Hospital in St. Marys as a case manager, and St. Rita's Medical Center in Lima as a registered nurse.

The groom is a graduate of Jefferson High School and received his bachelor's degree from the University of Findlay. He also obtained his masters of physician assistant studies from the University of Nebraska. He is employed by the Orthopaedic Institute of Ohio as a physician assistant.