Kelsey Lynn Martin and Justin Matthew Krendl were united in marriage on July 14, 2012, at St. John the Evanglist Catholic Church by Rev. Melvin Verhoff.

The bride's parents are Jeff and Linda Martin of Elida. The groom's parents are Terry and Teresa Van Grootheest and Matthew Krendl of Delphos.
Nuptial music was provided by vocalist Torii Rutledge and organist Mary Beth Will.
Maids of honor were Dana and Abbey Martin of Elida, sisters of the bride.
Bridesmaids were Alyssa Klausing and Valerie Morris of Delphos, friends of the couple; and Abby Van Grootheest of Delphos, sister of the groom.
Best men were Marcus and Dylan Krendl, brothers of the groom.
Groomsmen were Troy Moenter, Andrew DeWitt, Kevin Morris and Scott Fischer of Delphos, friends of the couple.
Grandparents of the couple are Bob and Dolly Martin, Marilyn Wagner, Bernard and Edith Calvelage and Jack and Mary Krendl.
A reception was held at Fort Jennings American Legion after the ceremony. Following a wedding trip to Aruba, the couple reside in Delphos.
The bride is a graduate of Owens Community College and is employed by Northwest Physical Therapy.
The groom is a graduate of the University of Toledo and is employed by Ford Engine Plant.