Eight persons were arraigned before Judge Charles Steele Wednesday in Van Wert County Common Pleas Court:
Steven L. Hindenlang, 51, Decatur, Ind., pled not guilty to a felony of the fourth degree charge of trespass in a habitation.
He was ordered held on a bond of $10,000 with 10 percent cash. Case was set for pretrial on June 19.
Nathaniel E. Thomas, 33, Van Wert, pled not guilty to aggravated possession of drugs, a felony of the fifth degree.
He was ordered held on a bond of $25,000 with 10 percent cash. Case was set for pretrial on June 19.
Corey L. Robinson, 32, Van Wert pled not guilty to having a weapon under disability, a felony of the third degree.
His bond was continued in the amount of $25,000 with 10 percent cash. Case was set for pretrial on June 19.
Megan L. Lippincott, 32, Van Wert, pled not guilty to aggravated possession of drugs, a felony of the fifth degree.
She was released on a surety bond and her case was set for pretrial on June 19.
Jason L. Vanover, 31, Van Wert, pleaded not guilty to possession of drugs, a felony of the fifth degree.
He was released on a surety bond and her case was set for pretrial on June 19.
Tina T. Means, 44, Cincinnati, pleaded not guilty to forgery, a felony of the fifth degree.
Her bond previously posted in Municipal Court was transferred to this case and her case was set for pretrial on June 19.
Steven R. Parsons Jr., 33, Van Wert, pleaded not guilty to two charges, theft, a felony of the fifth degree; and forgery, also a felony of the fifth degree.
He was released on a surety bond and her case was set for pretrial on June 19.
Gary Stephens, 55, Convoy, pleaded not guilty to two charges, burglary, a felony of the second degree; and breaking and entering, a felony of the fifth degree.
He was released on a surety bond and her case was set for pretrial on June 19.
Bond violation hearing
Joshua A. Lane, 26, Van Wert, denied violating his bond. He was ordered held on a $10,000 cash bond until his hearing set for June 12.