Local firefighters tour Jennings school

Written by Stephanie Groves Thursday, October 17, 2013 12:14 AM -BY STEPHANIE GROVES Staff Writer sgroves@delphosherald.com FORT JENNINGS — High School Principal Nicholas Langhals reported local firefighters visited the school and walked through touring the back room and surveying the fire panels and electrical system during Wednesday night's school board meeting. "I want to thank the firefighters for visiting the school and making sure all the plans were up to date," Langhals stated. The board accepted the following donations: $27.12 from Target Take Charge of Education; $200 from Karl and Joan Schimmoeller to the Band Department; $118.06 from Meijer Community Rewards and $41.48 from ReCharge Enterprises to the Elementary Activities Fund; and $100 from the Regina Schimmoeller family to the Drama Department. Langhals reported that the Five-Year Forecast was still being worked on and will be submitted by the end of October.

"It will have the most current information included," Langhals said. "In November, it will be reviewed and approved." Board members approved the following items: Elementary book bills; the $3,772.33 tuition rate for the 2013-14 school year; hiring Melissa Sukup as girls varsity basketball coach; hiring of Rob Warnecke as senior concessions manager, who will be paid through the Senior Fund; and the use of the old gym by Mike Maag for a karate tournament on
