

FFA advances to State Parli-Pro Contest

Written by Staff Reports

Thursday, December 13, 2012 1:50 PM -

Delphos FFA recently participated in the district Parliamentary Procedure Contest. This contest involves a senior and novice team. This career development event is based around the components and techniques that are used to properly run a business meeting. All Delphos FFA members are taught these components in class as freshmen and have the option to continue to build and practice these techniques through this contest. Senior Team members include, front from left, Karen Cline, Sophia Wilson, Courtney Vanschoyck and Tatiana Olmeda; and back, Kylie Fritz, Caitlin Landwehr, Wes Roby and Jordan Barclay. They placed second at the district contest received a gold rating earning them the right to compete at state competition.