A Delphos man was cited for failure to maintain control after his vehicle struck a parked mini-van on South Main Street reported at 7:10 p.m. Friday.

According to the police report, Lester Dancer, 83, of Delphos, was traveling southbound on South Main Street when he sideswiped a legally-parked mini-van owned by Lindsay Blankenship of Delphos on the west side of the road.

The Blankenship vehicle sustained minor damage and the Dancer vehicle sustained none.
